

ELDER HENRY CUNNINGHAM

Recommends

Vinol

For Weak, Run-Down People.

"I was run down and weak from indigestion and general debility, also suffered from vertigo. I saw a cod liver preparation called Vinol advertised and decided to give it a trial, and the results were most gratifying. After taking two bottles I regained my strength, and am now feeling unusually well." — HENRY CUNNINGHAM, Elder Baptist Church, Kinston, N.C.

Vinol contains the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal, strengthening, body-building elements of Cod Liver Oil and Tonic Iron. Vinol contains no oil, and is by far the Best Strengthening Tonic obtainable. We return your money without question if Vinol does not accomplish all we claim for it.

BARNESVILLE NEWS BATCH

An Enjoyable Social Affair—Personal Mention.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Mr. R. R. Barnes spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Lumberton on business.—Mr. Alonzo Hedspeeth, of Bennettsville, S. C., accompanied by his wife, has been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hedspeeth.—Mr. W. F. Smith, a commission merchant of Fayetteville, was here on business Wednesday.—Mr. Edward Cary, of the Orrum high school, attended the oyster supper here Friday night.—Miss Effie Britt spent Friday night with her friend Miss Mertie Walters.—Mr. Crayton Walters made a business trip to Lumberton Friday.

Mr. F. J. Noblin is considerably helping the looks of his residence by the aid of a skillful painter and a coat of glossy white paint.

The oyster supper here Friday night was an enjoyable occasion for all present. Miss "Wishyouwell", an Indian maiden from the West, occupied the little wigwam which had been prepared for her. Those who wished to know their fortunes or future destiny were quietly ushered by some of the school girls into the presence of her majesty, who found great delight in telling them all she knew. To Phil's sorrow she said he was destined to live only by himself among the giant icebergs of the North, where the days are 3 months long and night would never come. She left immediately after the supper for her home in the Dakotas. The oysters were prepared for eating by Mr. R. R. Flowers, who declares after he gets into his cooking attire his equal can't be found; and so it seems, for the way they disappeared seemed like magic. Ice cream, cake and fruits were served, and all seemed to have an altogether pleasant time.

Misses Effie Britt and Maud Herring and Messrs. Bart. Lewis and Oscar Floyd attended the fruit supper at Mr. John Lewis' Saturday night. They report a nice time.

taffy candy. Everybody ate the candy they pulled, so naturally each was trying to pull more than the other.

Messrs. Arthur McRae, Rowland Brown, John Thrower and Will Townsend spent several hours in Maxton Thursday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Maxton, were in town a short time Friday morning. They came over to see Mrs. Williams' sister, Miss Minnie Lou McRae, a student at the S. P. C.

On last Thursday evening Miss Mary McEachern and Miss Bessie McAlester charmingly entertained the "Good Times Club" at Miss McEachern's home. The guests played progressive games, all of which were very interesting and entertaining. The time was quickly and pleasantly spent and all went home saying they had never been more beautifully entertained and that the hostesses were ideal.

Rev. Mr. Graves, of West Virginia, will assist Rev. Mr. McLellan in a protracted meeting in the Baptist church here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Johnson, of Tomahawk, were guests at the home of Mr. W. J. Johnson several days of this week.—Mrs. F. B. Sexton and son, Master John Walker, spent several days here last week at the home of Mrs. Sexton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berder Conolly.—Mr. D. S. Alderman, of R. F. D. No. 3, was in town Monday.

There will be a big minstrel show here Saturday. A big crowd is expected to be in town then.
